

THE WOODCOTE TIMES

17.03.26

Woodcote Misses Mrs Hunt

Mrs Hunt left Woodcote primary school to ray year but not brownies check Endon

By Sophie

Woodcote primary schools head teacher Mrs Hunt retired from working on Wednesday 4th February 2026 but still doing girl guide at check Endon Brownies. Mrs Hunt left Woodcote primary school to ray year but not brownies check Endon Woodcote primary school had a visitor come rondo the school she helped with sowing are names on a Woll leaves we cod decorate are names. We asked Jacob 10 years old his thoughts about sowing the leaves. I did and it was sad when Mrs hunt left.

The hole of Woodcote new that Mrs Hunt was leaving so in Woodcote primary school all the year group made a card for her. Everybody sind the card that they had maid.

As there head teacher loved sager the starve made a decision to learned a song clad ABBA Thank you for the music we asked Sophia 10 years old her though about Luning the song she said that she found it ammonal bukans Misis hunt was longsome children did not sing it sadly they Lunt the song for 3 days but hey pull it of Aven Charly.

On Monday 2nd Feury 2026 Woodcote primary school had an amusingly a seemly because there head teacher was Gowing to leave them but year three wood see her on Wednesday 4th Feury 2026 we asked Rosie 9 years old her thorites about the assembly she said i felt sad and inly some people are brownies so they would still see her ever Tuesday when they come.

On Tuesday 3rd Feury 2026 after school the brownies has 1 awe to get ready to go to brownies and then do an activity. On Wednesday 4th Feury 2026 it was Mis Hunt last day in Woodcote primary school she went on a school trip with the year three they went to a farm.