C C

Sing a song of sixpence,

C G

A pocket full of rye;

C F

Four and twenty blackbirds

G G

Baked in a pie

C C

When the pie was opened,

G G

They all began to sing.

C F

Wasn't that a dainty dish

G C C – F – G – C

To set before the King?

C C

The King was in his counting house,

C G

Counting out his money;

C F

The Queen was in the parlour

G G

Eating bread and honey.

C C

The maid was in the garden,

G G

Hanging out the clothes.

C F

A- long there came a black bird

G F C

And snipped off her nose!
